As the Pasco County Senior Services' lead agency CARES believes that happy and fulfilled caregivers are at the core of its commitment to provide superior care to its valued clients. Because of our commitment, we take exceptional steps in hiring professionals who pride themselves in caring for our aging population with the dignity and respect that every team member deserves. We ask that only those who are dedicated and passionate about their commitment to impact the lives of our clients apply positively. With such a diverse client demographic with needs across a broad spectrum, we ask that each potential employee ask themselves: "Is this just a job to hold me over?". If the answer is yes, please save yourself the time and trouble in applying with our organization. However, if you enjoy the challenge of going to work with clients with a variety of needs and feel empowered to uplift our senior client base, then we look forward to hearing from you.

CARES is seeking select professional caregivers that are not only prepared to serve but represent our non-profit organization with the ability to present dignity and respect in every situation. We're seeking CNA's, Home Health Aides, and Homemaker professionals who can provide light housekeeping, companionship, and meal preparation services. For those seeking an opportunity to be a part of the CARES family, we offer competitive wages, healthcare benefits, paid travel time, and flexible scheduling to include weekends. Candidates must pass a level II background check, drug screening and currently have dependable transportation with a clean driving record. For more information, please reach out to us, we'd love to hear from you.

We have immediate shifts available throughout Pasco County. If you are looking for consistent work and hours, come join our rapidly expanding team! Must be willing to work 20 to 25 hours per week minimum which may include some weekends for part-time employment, and 40 hours per week for full-time status.

Your Career as a Caregiver at CARES...

Have you ever shopped for a friend, or family member? Have you ever helped a loved one around the house? Do you currently or have you ever provided emotional support for an older adult? If you've answered yes to any of these questions, then you are a caregiver.

With an increase in the aging population within the United States, there are over 44 million individuals providing different levels of care for a senior loved one. Experience is anything you do that enhances the quality of life for seniors that supports their independent living. Caregiving is a variety of activities that include:

- Personal Care (Bathing, Dressing, Hands-on Activities of Daily Living)
- Companionship for conversation, engaging in activities like games, memory books, and light exercise
- Light housekeeping and meal preparation
- Medication reminders
- Running errands and grocery shopping
- Alzheimer's Care
- Hoyer/Sara Lifts

Most importantly, professional caregiving allows you to build on the skills you already have to develop a fulfilling, rewarding career helping seniors live rich, independent lives.

CARES provides various services that allow our aging community to remain in their home and meet the challenges of aging with dignity, care, and compassion.
